

*A*delean Youngberg, age 78, of Albert City, Iowa, died Sunday, February 1, 2009 at the Pocahontas Manor Care Center in Pocahontas, Iowa.

Adelean Ingeborg Youngberg, the daughter of Carl Oscar and Hildur Emelia (Anderson) Youngberg, was born at her parents' farm in Elmore Township, Faribault County, Blue Earth, Minnesota, on April 21, 1930. She began her education in a country school near her farm home and attended that school until moving to her mother's parental farm home near Albert City, Iowa, when Adelean was in the fourth grade. Adelean completed her education at the Albert City High School from which she graduated in 1948. She accepted Christ as her personal Savior in her early teen years and was baptized and confirmed in the Lutheran faith.

Adelean assisted her parents in the home and she was also actively engaged in the farming operation. She later purchased an 80-acre farm adjacent to her mother's farm. Carl died in March of 1965 and Adelean continued to assist her mother with the farm management. Following her mother's death, Adelean accepted full responsibility for the management of the farm. She was a member of the Farm Bureau. On January 7, 2004, she entered the Pocahontas Manor Care Center, where she made her home until the time of her death.

Adelean was an active member of the Our Savior's Lutheran Church of Albert City. She had been a Sunday School teacher for the kindergarten and first grade classes for 10 years and also served as the Sunday School teachers' secretary. She was member of the Young Women's Missionary Society, which later became the Evening Missionary Society, in which she was a devotional leader. Adelean was the church's assistant librarian until March of 1965.

Adelean had many varied interests which included reading, attending church related services and activities, history, embroidering, scrapbooking, and car rides surveying the countryside. She was also a collector of various items such as bears, coins (especially state quarters), stamps, postmarks, stationery, and address labels.

Her life and memories will be honored and celebrated by her cousins, second cousins, other extended family, and her many friends in the Albert City area.

Adelean was preceded in death by her grandparents, her parents, an infant brother, uncles, aunts, and other family members.

In Loving Memory

*R*ejoice in the Lord always: and again I say, Rejoice. Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand. Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things. Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you. — Phillipians 4: 4-9

But they that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint. — Isaiah 40:31 is my shepherd; I shall not want.

The

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
 He leadeth me beside still waters. He restoreth my soul;
 He leadeth me in the paths
 of righteousness for His name's sake.
 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
 I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff, they comfort me; Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil, my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;
 And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

— Psalm 23

*W*e wish to express our gratitude for the kindness evidenced in thought and deed, and for your attendance at this service. Please join us for lunch and a time of fellowship and sharing at the church immediately following the services.
