

Marjorie L. Lambert, age 91, of Newell, Iowa, departed this earth on March 10, 2010, at the Pleasant View Nursing Home at Albert City, Iowa.

Marjorie Lucille Akin, the daughter of John and Lydia Sophia (Feist) Akin, was born during a snowstorm on January 27, 1919, at the principal's house at Fairview School. She grew up on farms in northwest Iowa with her parents and older brother and sister. Marjorie received her education in Fairview, Marathon, and Sulphur Springs, graduating from the Sulphur Springs High School with the Class of 1938.

At an early age, she took an interest in all mechanical things, including motorcycles. Marjorie developed those talents and secured a job in Detroit as an auto mechanic. Her first boss, Fred Winders, later became her first husband on December 12, 1945, in Tacoma, Washington. This couple was blessed with two children: Barbara and John. Following Fred's death in 1952, Marjorie returned to her parent's farm near Newell, Iowa, with her two children. On October 20, 1972, Marjorie was united in marriage to Richard Lambert at the St. John's United Church of Christ of rural Newell. Up until one month before her death, she spent the rest of her life on the family farm, sharing it, after her mother's death, with her second husband, Richard. Marjorie will be remembered for her faithfulness to the land she loved and to her commitment and belief in responsible farming. May others follow her example.

Marjorie is a former member of the Ghost Riders Motorcycle Club of Spencer, Iowa. She was a Sunday School teacher for several years at the Newell United Methodist Church. She had many varied interests which included doing needle-work, gardening, horseback riding, working on cars and machinery, and riding her lawnmower.

Marjorie's life and memory is honored by her family which include her husband, Richard Lambert of Newell, Iowa; her daughter, Barbara Stroud of Anaheim Hills, California; and her son, John Winders of Vista, California; two grand-children, Jason Winders and Jennifer Winders both of Temecula, California.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Fred Winders; her sister, Dorothy Larson and her brother, Robert Akin.

In Loving Memory

Marjorie Lambert

1919 — 2010

Remember Me
(Edith Karen Bulock)

Remember me when flowers bloom
Early in the spring
Remember me on sunny days
In the fun that summer brings

Remember me in the fall
As you walk through the leaves of gold
And in the wintertime- remember me
In the stories that are told

But most of all remember
Each day- right from the start
I will be forever near
For I live within your heart.

IN MEMORY OF
Marjorie Lambert

January 27, 1919 — March 10, 2010

MEMORIAL SERVICE
Saturday, June 5, 2010 at 1:00 p.m.
St. John's United Church of Christ
Rural Newell, Iowa

CLERGY
Reverend Gavin Ellis

SPECIAL MUSIC
Music personally selected by Marjorie

INURNMENT
St. John's United Church of Christ
Rural Newell, Iowa

Arrangements by

SLIEFERT FUNERAL HOMES

www.sliefert.com

Albert City Marathon Sioux Rapids Storm Lake

---

We wish to express our gratitude for the kindness evidenced in thought and deed, and for your attendance at this service. Please join us for refreshments and a time of fellowship at the church immediately following the service.

— Marjorie's Family